Dream:

In my dream it looked like my husband and I were in a plain empty garage.

My husband kindly wanted to share knowledge with me.

The wall had a large picture window and I saw a large view of beautiful purple mountains.

Gold rays streamed in the background.

Then in the center of the mountains I saw a statue of Jesus.

Beside the picture window was a door. I laid on my stomach and reached for the door knob and opened it.

The view from the door was on the side of a mountain. It was steep and dangerous. It was a close view. I could see every speck, pore, mold, texture on the rock. I could feel the gentle wind and warmth of the light shining on it.

To the right was a small dark tunnel. I shut the door knowing I was not to step out but just have tangible view.

I stood up again and my husband told me to look at the window again. I saw a couple at an outdoor cafe. The man was physically abusing the woman. People around did nothing. Then the woman got up and began abusing the man but she was now a younger adult, like her daughter. Somehow I knew it was in Ireland. They stopped fighting when they noticed I was watching them and I saw their spirits transform into God's love.

I then had flashes of many places and people and it would interchange with the mountain (the purple mountains then an image of people in pain or sorrow, then the mountains and again another image of people in pain and sorrow and so it kept on until I saw all the images).

What I vividly remember is the flash of a train, a wagon, and a dirt dusty road. I could see people emotionally and physically being healed when they were aware that I could see them.

Dream Analysis: (As reported back to the person who had this dream)

In my dream it looked like my husband and I were in a plain empty garage (the one attached to a residence). My husband kindly wanted to share knowledge with me. Even though I saw my husband in the garage with me I felt like it was Jesus. Not sure if that is wrong to feel that way. I'm bothered that I saw Jesus as a statue in the mountains and not real:

Your husband indeed represented your heavenly Husband, Christ Jesus our Lord. An empty garage speaks of an active ministry. A parked car in the garage speaks of a dormant or a "paused" ministry. This implies that you are involved in a ministry, even if it is your personal spiritual ministry. The fact that Jesus is speaking to you and showing you things from this place speaks of the fact that He wants you to understand that what He is showing you is about your ministry and it will have an impact on your ministry. This knowledge He wants to share with you will also empower you to do what He wants you to do. When we are instructed to do something in dreams God also empowers us and anoints us to do what He wants us to do.

The wall had a large picture window and I saw a large view of beautiful purple mountains. Gold rays streamed in the background. Then in the center of the mountains I saw a statue of Jesus:

A window in dreams means God is giving you an open window to "SEE". It means He is opening your spiritual ability to see something specific. It is therefore a revelation. Purple mountains speaks of a place of spiritual victory or spiritual elevation or promotion (mountain) in this case achieved through the love of Christ (purple). ("May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; of the love of Christ").

The golden rays speaks of the influence of God (heating and touching everything like the rays of the sun on a person's skin). Golden rays speaks of holy purified faith. God influences his children with faith.

The statue of Jesus in the center of the mountain speaks of the fact that in the midst all these wonderful Godly things, the church still sees Jesus as a statue. This means that they believe in Him and they believe He has power but they do not believe that He can or wants to change circumstances in their lives. Later in your dream we see that God relates specifically to the power of Christ to change people's lives in the body of Christ and also the circumstances in their personal lives.

Beside the picture window was a door. I laid on my stomach and reached for the door knob and opened it:

A door speaks of an opportunity to preach or speak or testify. You did open the door so the opportunity is there for you. Although you were not to step out immediately the opportunity is yours to utilize in the future. Laying on your stomach speaks of getting your spirit carefully and responsibly in line with God.

The view from the door was on the side of a mountain. It was steep and dangerous. It was a close view. I could see every speck, pore, mold, texture on the rock. I could feel the gentle wind and warmth of the light shining on it. To the right was a small dark tunnel. I shut the door knowing I was not to step out but just have tangible view:

You could see everything in detail which speaks of God giving you absolutely clear spiritual insight into this (what He is showing you). Everything relating to this dream will be in your heart and you will grasp the full meaning of what Jesus is showing you. You know and you understand. You will have spiritual insight on what to do when you start moving out. You saw everything from an elevated position. This speaks of a position of victory and authority. At that moment you were not yet to go out but God needed you to know what is coming. You probably still need to be prepared for the task and you need to pray about it. Steep speaks of "difficulty". It will not be easy. Dangerous speaks of "bad reaction of evil" and you need to be prepared by hiding in God's love. A dark tunnel speaks of evil being able to reach area. In midst of this there is gentle wind which speaks of a gentle move of the Spirit of God (peace). Warm light of sun speaks of the light of the word of God (from God).

I stood up again and my husband told me to look at the window again. I saw a couple at an out door cafe. The man was physically abusing the woman. People around did nothing. Then the woman got up and began abusing the man but she was now a younger adult, like her daughter. Somehow I knew it was in Ireland. They stopped fighting when they noticed I was watching them and I saw their spirits transform into Gods love:

This scene depicts the reality in the church today. The man (symbolizing messengers of God) of the past were abusing the woman (church). Even today (younger woman who symbolizes the younger generation in the church today) the church is still abused. The church is now also retaliating because of past abuses (younger church abusing back). You will however bring healing to the church (many congregations and ministers). Both the preachers and the congregations responded positively to your ministry. You know God and you know the depth of his love. You have spiritual insight and you are equipped to change people's lives. You are anointed for this. "Watching" in dreams speaks of praying and caring for.

I then had flashes of many places and people and it would interchange with the mountain. The description of interchange is that I saw a flash of the mountain scene ( gold rays, statue of Jesus, purple mountains) then train, mountain scene, wagon, mountain scene, dirt road, mountain scene, people, mountain scene, places ( places around the world) mountain scene, people in pain ( sad), mountain scene, people healed. What I vividly remember is the flash of a moving train, and an old wagon with a dirty white canopy top and wooden wheels, and dirt dusty road. I could see people emotionally and physically being healed when they were aware that I could see them. I woke up:

This scene speaks of a few things that caused people to be in the spiritual conditions that they are: The first one was obviously the man and woman (wife) in Ireland (already discussed). Then the train which speaks of man-made doctrines in the church. The second one is the wagon with dirty canopy which speaks of very old ministries with old doctrines and old covering (dirty contaminated roof). The third one is the dusty road which speaks of a life of sin and fleshly desires. The church came a long way full of hardship but also of sin and sinful ways. These three caused people and the church to be in pain, spiritual ignorance, calamities, chaos and turmoil. This also caused them to believe that Jesus cannot or will not heal or help or deliver them. Each and every time Jesus took you back to the mountain of victory through the love and faith in Christ. This speaks of the very important condition: it cannot come other by knowing the depth, height, width...of Christ's love.

Interpretation:

This dream is a calling and an equipping and an anointing to go out and preach the message of this dream. The things that people are currently going through bothers Jesus a lot. The church and old out dated ministries caused a lot of damage in the body of Christ. God wants to bring renewal through your ministry. You have been given an open door and you have been anointed to do this. You need to pray about this and you need to allow God to work in your heart and in your life so that you can ultimately achieve this goal that He showed you in this dream. He wants to deliver and heal people through you. He wants to set people free. You might go to Ireland specifically but also to other places all over the world in order to achieve God's goal and purpose for your life.

Symbols and information to be checked and studied:

(I am including this practical exercise because people tend to miss very important symbols in dreams and visions. They assume that some symbols are not important and they also do not recognize hidden or obscure symbols. This exercise will also give you the opportunity to learn the symbols by heart)

Check out these symbols in the dreams dictionary:

Husband, empty garage, share knowledge, kindly, picture window, large view, beautiful, purple, mountains, gold, rays, background, statue, Jesus, door, laid, stomach, reached for doorknob, opened door, closed door, side of mountain, dangerous, steep, close view, every little detail, gentle wind, warmth of light, dark tunnel, not to step out, tangible view, couple at cafe, physical abusing, abusing back, man, woman, younger woman (like daughter), Ireland, stopped fighting, as realizing you watching them, spirits transformed, god's love, interchange, train, wagon, dirt road.

Please take note that a few words were actually to be taken literal and not to be regarded as symbols.

Conclusion:

I need to make it clear that all we can do is we can help people understand their dreams. We can help them with the basics. We help them with most of the interpretation but even after we have done that they still need to seek God's face about the dream. They need to deal with issues and they need to sort out their responsibilities, actions and reactions in terms of the relevant dream or vision.
