

Dream Analysis Report 3

Hi everybody,

This week's PRACTICAL DREAM ANALYSIS report is about spiritual warfare. Remember the analysis reports are part of our "Dreams and Visions Interpretation Course" program. These reports will be of tremendous value as it will slowly but surely train you and prepare you to master the gift of the "interpretation of dreams and visions". You will eventually interpret dreams and visions correctly and according to Biblical principles. Of course it will come easier and quicker by the day.

Although it is a gift, it is a gift that God gave to all his children.

Although it is a gift, it does take time and practice. Apart from getting more and more familiar with all the different symbols, the principles and the different fundamentals of dream analysis, it also cultivates a closer and more intimate relationship with Christ our Lord.

So, read all the reports as faithful as you can and stand up and be counted!

Dream:

This dream was sent in by John. The dream was actually a dream that the wife of one of his friends had recently:

Early this morning at 4 am I was woken up by a terrible dream. So in this dream I'm in a hospital. I am walking around, moving in and out of being a patient and a visitor. And then suddenly I'm somewhere else where it looks like some battle field. But the battle looks like its in the Star Wars movie with swords that glow where the blade is. Our team is losing, and in the middle of it we take a break. While we are on the break I go over to the enemy camp. When I get there some of my team mates are captured, it looks dirty and not nice at all. Then I go back to my side of the field to tell my team leader what I just saw. Before I could speak to him suddenly the opposing team leader shows up and says to me why am I with the leader and not with my team mates. Before I respond to him I look behind me where my team mates are and I see snakes, then I tell him there are snakes. The he says to me but there are snakes here too. And I look around there was suddenly a whole bunch of them all attacking me suddenly. I screamed in fear and woke up, only to realize that it was a dream and that I was screaming out loud. I woke my husband up with all the commotion. It felt so real.

Dream Analysis: (As reported back to the person who had this dream)

Early this morning at 4 am I was woken up by a terrible dream:

Four (4 am) symbolizes knowledge. This is what this dream is all about. God wanted to share some very important knowledge to your friend. It appears that she lacks very important knowledge in this area (spiritual warfare). This implies that she is either not aware of the strategies of the enemy (evil) or she is also being confused by the very popular but treacherous spiritual warfare doctrines of the mainline church today. There is a spiritual warfare (used in the Bible as a metaphor) but that spiritual warfare is totally different from popular teachings. In fact, popular teachings cause more harm than good and is sometimes even dangerous.

So in this dream I'm in a hospital:

In dreams people in hospital are people who have been spiritually hurt or injured.

I am walking around, moving in and out of being a patient and a visitor. And then suddenly I'm somewhere else where it looks like some battle field:

Your friend has family or friends or colleagues she is either visiting or she suffers hurt or injury again and again. This speaks of her and her friends not being protected or being able to stand firm. They are losing the battle again and again. The battle field is the spiritual battle field of people warring against evil.

But the battle looks like its in the Star Wars movie with swords that glow where the blade is. Our team is losing, and in the middle of it we take a break:

The fact that it is like star wars with fake swords emphasize the fact that she and her friends are on a wrong path here. See meaning of "swords" in dreams dictionary. It is like playing games and evil spirits play with them keeping these false doctrines alive and well, whilst in the mean time they are really hurting them. Not only is the devil the author of the fake spiritual warfare teachings, he and his demons also keep this doctrine alive by playing their part as indicated in this dream. The break is actually a God ordained pause in order for her to investigate what is really going on (revelation). God wants to set her and her friends free.

While we are on the break I go over to the enemy camp. When I get there some of my team mates are captured, it looks dirty and not nice at at:

Captured speaks of losing, warfare strategies not working and spiritual bondage. Dirty and not nice speaks of evil conditions. This lady and her friends are suffering and losing because they do not know how to really engage in true spiritual warfare the Bible way..

Then I go back to my side of the field to tell my team leader what I just saw. Before I could speak to him suddenly the opposing team leader shows up and says to me why am I with the leader and not with my team mates:

Your friend's leader is Jesus Christ and she wanted to tell him about their defeats and misery. This still feels like a game but in fact the opposing team leader is in fact the devil. This is for real! This is no game at all! Here we can see that the devil does not want you to confer with Jesus Christ. He wants you out on the battle field because he is having a ball. He enjoys defeating Christians who spend their time out on the battle field in stead of in the presence of their God.

Before I respond to him I look behind me where my team mates are and then I see snakes. I tell him there are snakes. The he says to me but there are snakes here too. When I look around there are suddenly a whole bunch of them all attacking me at once:

Please read "snake" in the dream dictionary (online). Your friend needs to read this. She clearly could not defend herself against the snakes in the dream because she does not know how to do it. This implies that she cannot defend herself against evil activities in real life. She needs to learn how to. It is actually far easier than people think but the wrong doctrines actually makes them terribly vulnerable.

I screamed in fear and woke up, only to realize that it was a dream and that I was screaming out loud and woke my husband up. It felt so real:

It is in fact real. Screaming in dreams symbolizes defeat and distress. Spiritually your friend is in distress because she and her friends are loosing the spiritual battle against evil because of ignorance.

Interpretation:

I think the symbols analysis says it all. Your friend needs to read the following posts on my website. It will help her a lot and it will prepare her for the battle against evil:

<https://www.asrmartins.com/satanic-oppression/>,

<https://www.asrmartins.com/spiritual-warfare-dangerous/>,

Symbols and information to be checked and studied:

(I am including this practical exercise because people tend to miss very important symbols in dreams and visions. They assume that some symbols are not important and they also do not recognize hidden or obscure symbols. This exercise will also give you the opportunity to learn the symbols by heart)

Check out these symbols in the dreams dictionary:

Four, hospital, moving in and out, sometimes visitor but sometimes patient, battle field, Star Wars movie, sword, losing, take a break, enemy, enemy camp, captured, dirty, not nice, team leader, snakes, many snakes, attacking, scream, fear.

Please take note that a few words were actually to be taken literal and not to be regarded as symbols.

Conclusion:

I need to make it clear that all we can do is we can help people understand their dreams. We can help them with the basics. We help them with most of the interpretation but even after we have done that they still need to seek God's face about the dream. They need to deal with issues and they need to sort out their responsibilities, actions and reactions in terms of the relevant dream or vision.

Please read the posts in our newest category, "Interesting Discussions on dreams" which will help you a lot.

See you next week

Blessings in Christ
