

Dream Analysis Report 6

Hi everybody,

This week's PRACTICAL DREAM ANALYSIS report is about a lady who wants to divorce her husband. She asked God about this and this dream is about the answer He gave her. Remember the analysis reports are part of our "Dreams and Visions Interpretation Course" program. These reports will be of tremendous value as it will slowly but surely train you and prepare you to master the gift of the "interpretation of dreams and visions". You will eventually interpret dreams and visions correctly and according to Biblical principles. Of course it will become easier and quicker as you get more familiar with the different principles that govern dream and vision interpretation.

Although it is a gift, it is a gift that God gave all his children.

Although it is a gift, it does take time and practice. Apart from getting more and more familiar with all the different symbols, the principles and the different fundamentals of dream analysis, it also cultivates a closer and more intimate relationship with Christ our Lord.

So, read all the reports as faithful as you can and stand up and be counted!

Dream:

I had a dream that I was in a hospital and was told I would have to stay for a month (note: in waking life, I have been having some health problems). I'm watching the nurse go to the Doctor and ask him if he had my test results. He comes to me and starts drawing (with a pencil) 2 very large interlocking circles, one not completely closed but with only a small gap. But then he traces over that circle over and over making it darker and asks me if I see that?

Then I'm in a hospital room and my husband is there and I tell him I have to stay for a month.

From there I was walking down my street to get my daughter from the bus stop with a blanket around me and I see the nurse (that was talking to the Doctor in the hospital) looking out of a neighbors window at the end of my street where the bus stop is and I was in knowing that I had to go back to the hospital after getting my daughter. My daughter's friends then are coming from the stop but there was no bus and my daughter was not with them and I asked where she was and did she not get on the bus and they said yes she's coming and I told them they were lying and then I woke up!

(So, like I said in my waking life, I have been having some health problems. I have been dealing with things mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually for a very long time now with not just myself but with my 4 children (ages 23, 20, 14 , 9) and my husband of 15 years (father of only the younger 2 of the children). I am a believer and my husband is not and I realize it has been hindering my spiritual growth along with our children we have together. He doesn't lead us spiritually and doesn't think there is any importance in praying or going to church or even having God in our marriage or even in our life! This influence has our children have this same mindset . They are 14 and 9. I have been praying what is best for my children. My husband started his own business 9 years ago and has become so prideful, arrogant, selfish, and extremely judgmental and unforgiving! We live completely different lives. We have no communication at all. We are so unequally yoked and I'm miserable! I have lost all joy and happiness with myself and my life and with God. I feel numb and emotionless. I asked God for clarification on my marriage whether to stay or get a divorce because of the influence is has on my children the day before having this dream)

Dream Analysis: (As reported back to the person who had this dream)

Thanks for your request to interpret your dream. This dream is absolutely a very direct answer to your question the day before. Should you divorce? The answer is a very bold and very definite "No". In fact, the Lord has another plan to change your circumstances. But let me not run ahead. You do need to see for yourself the meanings of the symbols of your dream. To make it easier for you I am going to copy and paste it from the dictionary with additional comments. You may go back to the online symbols dictionary to see for yourself.

Dream symbols analysis:

I had a dream that I was in a hospital and was told I would have to stay for a month (note: in waking life, I have been having some health problems):

When we dream of hospitals it indicates that we need or that we are about to receive spiritual medical attention and healing. Remember, spiritual healing is actually guaranteed according to the book of James Chapter 5. This implies that God (Jesus) saw your suffering and that He feels that this is enough. He is about to heal you and it is going to take a month (one month or 4 weeks symbolizes a specific (complete) time of fulfillment. This does not mean that your healing will literally materialize exactly in one month. It means that there will be a period of time during which your healing will be brought to completion (4 weeks or 1 month). It means that God saw your suffering but He guarantees that you will be healed from all the things you mentioned.

I'm watching the nurse go to the Doctor and ask him if he had my test results. He comes to me and starts drawing (with a pencil) 2 very large interlocking circles, one not completely closed but with only a small gap:

The nurse symbolizes any person (in this case even an imaginary person) who requires from the Lord any detail regarding your illness (test results). Doctor - Jesus is the true Healer or our true doctor and the doctor in your dreams symbolizes Jesus Christ our Healer. It is now important to notice that Jesus does not focus on your diseases (test results) but He focuses on the real problem. Your marriage.

Ring: A ring symbolizes a person's commitment to another person. It speaks of unity or a covenant. Rings: Two rings becoming interlinked like a chain: Two rings becoming interlinked speaks of two people getting married. The problem is that one of the rings is starting to open. That will cause your marriage to fail and you getting divorced. I think you are that ring since you are the one who are considering divorce.

But then he traces over that circle over and over making it darker and asks me if I see that?:

The fact that Jesus is drawing over and over the ring which is slowly opening making it darker, speaks of Him asking you to remember the covenant you made with your husband. It emphasizes the fact that He does not want you to get separated or divorced. He wants you to remember his will regarding divorce. He does not want you to divorce. He wants you to stay married. Pen: A writing pen is used to write things down. We actually record things so that we do not forget it. A pen in a dream therefore symbolizes us pondering on past events and past incidents and bringing it into remembrance. The color of the pen will reveal more detail on the nature of the things we are pondering on. Pencil: A pencil speaks of a person who only remembers good testimonies on a short-term basis. Such people are like the Israelites in the desert who quickly forgot what God has done for them. It also speaks of a person forgetting things like the will and the word of God. The fact that Jesus is using the pencil to make this circle darker and prominent is because He wants you to realize that you have a short term memory when it comes to this aspect of his will. The fact that He asks you if you see him emphasizing the fact that the ring should stay interlocked speaks of him asking you if you understand that you should stay married and honor his word and his will. I assume that He did repair the area where the ring started opening (gap) because it emphasizes him not in favor of you divorcing your husband. Please let me know if my assumption is correct.

Then I'm in a hospital room and my husband is there and I tell him I have to stay for a month:

After this your actual healing and restoration begins. It cannot happen whilst you are harboring thoughts of divorcing. It actually makes you sick and confused. That is why Jesus focused on this aspect and not your illness. He went for the root of your illness. Now the Lord knows exactly what you went through. He knows how you are suffering and how you suffered in the past. There is however a way out of this. You need to walk completely within his will to receive your deliverance and your healing. If you are obedient and if you do what He asks you will be restored spiritually but you will also be healed physically. A lot of your problems and conditions will actually disappear without you even having to ask for it. Some of the conditions will clear up by itself. The next verse will be crucial when you embark on this road or restoration and healing: 1 John 3:21-22 (NIV) Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God and receive from him anything we ask, because we keep his commands and do what pleases him. This is a requirement. We need to be obedient in order to receive.

From there I was walking down my street to get my daughter from the bus stop with a blanket around me and I see the nurse (that was talking to the Doctor in the hospital) looking out of a neighbors window at the end of my street where the bus stop is and I was in knowing that I had to go back to the hospital after getting my daughter:

A "daughter" in dreams and visions speaks of spiritual growth or spiritual expansion and spiritual fruitfulness. This means that more aspects of spiritual development and growth and maturity are added to the existing spiritual condition. It speaks of growth in terms of spiritual maturity. God wants you to mature in this what He is asking you to do. He is asking faithfulness and consistency and persistence and perseverance. If you do you will be healed (going back to hospital after you received your daughter). The blanket speaks of you covering yourself in "rest" because that is what you long for (giving another person a blanket in dreams and visions symbolizes a person whose motive it is to offer another person a time of rest. See "Bed". It speaks of the will of a person or the actions that a person performs in order to give another person a time of resting. In this case you probably covered yourself with a blanket because you long for spiritual and probably physical rest as well. This could however speak of you receiving spiritual and physical rest when you pick up your daughter (spiritual maturity and expansion). You really suffered the past few years and you want a bit of rest, which is understandable

but. God has divine rest in store for you. A Biblical miraculous kind of rest. He wants to restore your spiritual strength and joy in him whilst serving him. Being a good mother to your children and a good wife for your husband is what God wants for you. I think the Lord knows something you do not know about your husband. Yes he is in the world and he is not saved yet but I am sure he will be one day.

My daughter's friends then are coming from the stop but there was no bus and my daughter was not with them and I asked where she was and did she not get on the bus and they said yes she's coming and I told them they were lying and then I woke up!:

This part of the dream indicates that you do not believe this part above. You do not believe that God can change your circumstances and you do not believe He will. A bus speaks of the whole church or congregation or the global ministry of a congregation. A bus is a passengers vehicle. There is one driver and many passengers. This speaks of a ministry where the leader is supported by many people. Whatever the condition of the bus, the color and different incidents tell us more about the specific congregation or church. This part of your dream about the bus speaks of you not believing anymore that the church (body of Christ) really cares for you anymore. It speaks of you believing that the church cannot make any difference. The church failed you and God failed you. The church lost it's power and God probably does not care anymore. You lost faith in the church and this may indicate that you lost faith in God as well. Remember however that there is a spiritual church (body of Christ) which is the kingdom of God who is actually an extension of the ministry of God. This part of the dream speaks of you finding a good Bible based church where you can be spiritually supported so that you can grow up spiritually so that you can be healed and restored. It is absolutely guaranteed that you will be restored and healed. In fact your whole family will greatly benefit from it. If you are already in a good Bible based church then you need to get your faith back.

The fact that your daughter was not on the bus and you not believing the promise that she is on her way support the statements above.

Interpretation:

The devil is really trying to destroy your marriage and he is almost there. It will be a huge mistake if you allow this because you, your husband and your children will suffer a lot if the devil succeeds with his intentions. It appears to me that the solution is actually in your hands and at this stage not in the hands of your husband. You have the ability, the power and the anointing to turn things around for your whole family. This dream is an empowerment. You will be empowered and anointed to turn everything around if you are obedient in what God asks you. You need to stand up from this hole that the devil digged for you. Take spiritual authority and stand up. Pray like you never did before. Worship God like you never did before. Take back your joy and take back your life. Be persistent and be courageous. You will be amazed how your life is going to change for the better as from day one. God will be with you every step of the way. Treat your husband with love and respect although he does not deserve it at all. Start building bridges. Your family will eventually be totally restored

Symbols and information to be checked and studied:

(I am including this practical exercise because people tend to miss very important symbols in dreams and visions. They assume that some symbols are not important and they also do not recognize hidden or obscure symbols. This exercise will also give you the opportunity to learn the symbols by heart)

Check if you could recognize all the different symbols in the dream (include all scenes) and check it out in the dreams dictionary. Were there any symbols that you missed or did not recognize?

Conclusion:

I need to make it clear that all we can do is we can help people understand their dreams. We can help them with the basics. We help them with most of the interpretation but even after we have done that they still need to seek God's face about the dream. They need to deal with issues and they need to sort out their responsibilities, actions and reactions in terms of the relevant dream or vision.
