

Dream Analysis Report 14

Hi everybody,

This week's PRACTICAL DREAM ANALYSIS report is about a family who had to protect themselves against evil attacks. One lady was very prominent in this and she really showed that the powerful word of God is like a shotgun capable of blowing off the head of an attacker with one shot.

Please remember to read the post about the Golden Key available to us in terms of dreams and visions interpretation that makes it possible to interpret each and every dream or vision correctly. Click on the link below for more information:

The Golden Key

The most important factor that dramatically increases the chances of correctly interpreting any dream or vision is this: Have I been able to identify the "incident" that caused the specific dream or vision? What happened during the few hours just before I had the dream or vision? Can I make a connection? If you can, your chances of interpreting the dream or vision increased by a few hundred percent. I am not exaggerating!

Remember the analysis reports are part of our "Dreams and Visions Interpretation Course" program. These reports will be of tremendous value as it will slowly but surely train you and prepare you to master the gift of the "interpretation of dreams and visions". You will eventually interpret dreams and visions correctly and according to Biblical principles. Of course it will get easier and quicker as you get more familiar with the different principles that govern dream and vision interpretation.

Although it is a gift, it is a gift that God gave all his children.

Although it is a gift, it does take time and practice. Apart from getting more and more familiar with all the different symbols, the principles and the different fundamental principles that govern dream analysis, it also cultivates a closer and more intimate relationship with Christ our Lord.

So, read all the reports as faithful as you can and stand up and be counted!

Dream:

This dream was a sepia colored or "brown" hue, dark like background. In the first scene, our family (all adult members) and some friends were all on a horseback ride. I was not with them but was watching from a cabin like homestead. I could see them coming down a slope at the far end of our acreage. All of the family members on horseback were "ponying" a very specific horse (guiding another horse by a lead rope). They all seemed to be protecting the rider of that horse who was a boy around the age of ten. The strange thing was the boy was riding the horse backwards with his body facing the back of the horse. They were all going very slowly and carefully as not to allow the boy to fall off of the horse. Even the horse seemed to be very careful and gentle with the boy.

In the next scene of the dream, the whole family was inside the cabin. We were hanging around the fireplace and there seemed to be this sense of fear looming. It was still dark and ashy like outside, and brown. There was dried grass and dirt out on the field. It was like death. We heard a noise like someone's boots and the sound of spurs walking on the wood planking outside the front of the house. It was like an old western movie. I carefully looked out the window and saw a group of riders on horseback. You could tell they were bad guys, a gang.

The family members inside were scared and begged me not to look out of the window. I told them to be quiet and it would all be okay. Then there was a knock on the door. I started to open the door because I knew I could deal with whoever it was, but the family begged me not to open the door. I whispered to them to be very quiet and to pray. I opened the door, and then closed the door behind me onto the front porch. It was a man in a black cowboy hat, like an outlaw, and black vest and boots. His hair dark and greasy and was untidy and he had a scruffy face.

The first thing I said to him very confidently was "What do you want?" I had a shotgun with me. He smiled an evil smile and I could see his teeth were rotten and there was a stench coming from his mouth. He replied " We came for the kid", and I answered "Well you can't have him and he isn't here", He said " We know he's here." I said " So what if he is? You need to leave." He smiled again, trying to intimidate me and I said "Tell you what, you and your guys can leave now or I can blow your head off with this shotgun" He said " You and what army?" I said, " The one inside this house praying right now".

He immediately left and so did all of his men.

Dream Analysis:

I am briefly referring to different symbols in this analysis. It is important for you to check them out in the Dreams Dictionary as well so that you have a better understanding of these symbols. It is also important to remember that certain circumstances leading up to a dream or certain questions asked before a dream or a person pondering on something specific before a dream really helps a lot in terms of interpreting the dream. In most cases such information ensures that the interpretation is totally accurate.

Interpretation:

This dream was interpreted in a general sense because no incident could be linked to it yet. See the post about the Golden key.

This dream could have been a call for intercession. It is clear that a group of people (family, ministry of renewal, renewal at a work situation) were under demonic attack (background colors of dream suggests evil influences and an atmosphere of evil) at the time that you had this dream. This was not a baby boy but an older boy indicating that the renewal in this group of people (See "Baby (Boy)") was developing for some time already although not strong or mature yet. Sitting backwards speaks of it not yet able to handle things. It even speaks of a situation where people are looking back instead of forward in terms of this "renewal" among them. It appears that they were all protecting a young ministry or something that's still new or young or frail (symbolized by the boy). Horses symbolizes ministry or motivation or strength. These people all had the same motivation and that was to protect that boy (ministry).

These people, in a sense, approached you (person who had this dream) or by some events became part of you. It appears that you became quite prominent because you took a leadership role and you initiated the counter attack. The rest of the family were not up for it. The shotgun you carried symbolizes the powerful word of God.

A gang of bad people usually symbolizes evil spirits and/or bad evil people. The characteristics of the leader is as follows: Black clothes (evil and being prepared to do evil), black hat (mind filled with negative evil thoughts), rotten teeth (teeth symbolizes the eating of the word of God or the evil words of the enemy). This mans teeth were rotten because of the bad evil "spiritual food" he lived on which is the lies of the enemy, bad breath (bad breath speaks of the smell of bad rotten food and rotten teeth). This man (evil spirit or evil person) was just so badly influenced by bad and evil lies that he smelled like it. A scruffy face speaks of this person's bad personality which was influenced by the bad things he did and by submitting to the lies and evil influences of the devil and evil spirits.

He and his gang threatened you but as soon as you resisted them and started using the word of God, the whole group withdrew and they gave up without a fight. It is important to see that the people with you prayed and you were ready to use the word of God to remove things that were bad. The emphasis is removing bad doctrines and bad evil reports and lies. That is why you threatened to remove this person's head with the shotgun (See "Head"). This speaks of removing evil words. So whatever this man and his gang had in their minds and souls (thoughts) you were able to remove it with the word of God so that they cannot teach or spread lies and evil words among your family members anymore. It was not even necessary to use the word (shotgun) because the evil attackers, although arrogant, knew what was coming and they gave up.

This dream is a classic case of correct spiritual warfare by applying the word of God, praying and resisting evil from a position of power and authority. Not by fighting demons but by resisting evil by not sinning and not believing the bad evil words. Instead you held fast to the word of God. You kept your faith.

If we can successfully connect this dream to the incident that caused it or triggered it we will have more specific information available that will help us interpret it more correctly. It could have been about a specific threat that you people faced at that time and this was God's method to deal with it. He probably wanted you to take action and to be decisive and to be bold. He also might have showed you that you need to act and that the rest of the family would not be able to. I have seen through the years that when people dream of family it often symbolizes their spiritual family.

Conclusion:

It is so easy to make a mistake when we interpret dreams. We need to connect our dreams and visions to the incident that triggered it in the first place. This will ensure a correct interpretation. However, do not forget that there are times when God speaks to us directly without us asking questions or pondering on matters that is bothering us or important to us. These dreams are not connected to an incident and are almost always spiritual and actually a lot easier to interpret.

I need to make it clear that all we can do is helping people understanding their dreams and visions. We can help them with the basics. We help them with most of the interpretation but even after we have done that they still need to seek God's face about the dream or the vision. They still need to deal with issues and they need to sort out their responsibilities, actions and reactions in terms of the relevant dream or vision.
