

Dreams Analysis Report 20

Hi everybody,

(An Important Message For the Jews)

This week's PRACTICAL DREAM AND VISION ANALYSIS report really touched my heart. It is a must read! A very special lady had a very interesting vision about a very deep canyon. In the vision, down at the bottom of that canyon she found a very strange creature. Check out the dream analysis report below.

Please remember that the purpose of these reports is for you to try to interpret the dreams and visions yourself before you read the interpretation done by me.

Please remember to read the post about the Golden Key available to us in terms of dreams and visions interpretation that makes it possible to interpret each and every dream or vision correctly. Click on the link below for more information:

The analysis reports are part of our "Dreams and Visions Interpretation Course" program. These reports will be of tremendous value as it will slowly but surely train you and prepare you to master the gift of the "interpretation of dreams and visions". You will eventually interpret dreams and visions correctly and according to Biblical principles. Of course it will get easier and quicker as you get more familiar with the different principles that govern dream and vision interpretation.

Although it is a gift, it is a gift that God gave all his children.

Although it is a gift, it does take time and practice. Apart from getting more and more familiar with all the different symbols and the different fundamental principles that govern dream analysis, it also cultivates a closer and more intimate relationship with Christ our Lord.

So, read all the reports as faithful as you can and stand up and be counted!

Dream:

I was taken to a place that was like a canyon, but the walls of this canyon were so high you could not see any sky. As though it went up forever. This place was black, and sleek black rock smooth as though they were formed by lava. The ground looked like a dried up lake-bed, only formed by the same black rock. There was absolutely no wind. No smell. This place was the definition of nothing.

I was placed looking at a scene . On the right, was a man (I know this person, he is saved, but he is also Jewish). He was staring to the left at a object to the left of me. I was standing back able to see this unfold. The object to the left was a human shape, not male, not female, but shaped human.

It was COMPLETELY covered in the most bright vibrant butterflies. Hot pink, soft and bright yellow some tipped with blue. The man to my right could not see anything but this creature. He didn't know I was standing there. He didn't even see the black place (canyon). There was no color or hue in the surroundings other than shade of black on black. Twenty feet this figure stood from him.

All of a sudden, the butterflies flew off the figure, scattered left and right, one solitary butterfly flew towards his face. The butterflies that scattered started to disintegrate, not in flames, but became a black silt. Not floating down, but pouring down like fine black sand. They became one with the ground below.

The butterfly that flew towards his face, he reached out to touch, and before he could, it disintegrated like the other butterflies did. Then the figure he was enamored with was revealed. Like a black figure made of this rock. The creature turned its back on him.

The first leg that took a step became the same as the butterflies. It walked and became the same as the ground. Nothing. I looked at him. He fell, knees then palms first, weeping. Sorrow. Deep regret and realization weeping. A deep groaning I heard the word, "Ashes". I could feel this deep sorrow.

Suddenly I was in a different place. I had moved to the right. Like being swept there. This place was beautiful. Jerusalem was in the distance behind this beautiful place. Perfect peace. And not the atmosphere but I could feel the presence of God in perfect peace here. I saw a tree. This tree was only a little above a story tall. The trunk was intertwined in three and beautiful and smooth. I heard the word "Myrtle tree". The leaves were a rich, deep, green and the spotting of white blossoms adorned it. The air had a perfect scent, a clean, yet perfumed scent.

There was a pleasant breeze that refreshes without a chill. The grass was perfect and vibrant. Perfect height but not manicured by anyone. This place was alive. The sky was a perfect mid day blue and the sun was slightly behind me but not beating down.

Under the shade of the tree, the man sat Indian style with an open Hebrew bible in his lap. As he leaned back on the tree I heard, "Join him and hear the word."

Dream Analysis:

I am briefly referring to different symbols in this analysis. It is important for you to check them out in the Dreams Dictionary as well so that you have a better understanding of these symbols. It is also important to remember that certain circumstances leading up to a dream or certain questions asked before a dream or a person pondering on something specific before a dream really helps a lot in terms of interpreting the dream. In most cases such information ensures that the interpretation is totally accurate.

Interpretation:

This vision, in a general sense, speaks of the nation of Israel. However, if it can be connected to an incident it can be about a specific person or a group of people going through a very bad situation. First I want to explain why it is probably about the Jewish nation. The saved man in the dream is a Jew. In the second part of the vision this man had a Hebrew Bible on his lap. Jerusalem was in the background. This indicates that this message is probably for the Jews.

A valley in dreams speaks of a bad situation or a bad challenging time. A canyon so deep with walls so high that you cannot even see the sky speaks of an utterly negative, depressive, hopeless situation, far more worse than a valley. The different shiny smooth shades of black speaks of utter depression, negativity, evil, hopelessness and unbelief. This really fits the Jewish nation who rejected Christ and who brought the curse of the law onto themselves. Symbols as bad and as negative as these usually do not fit situations in the lives of other people or other nations.

Just think of the utter hopelessness through all the years of antisemitism, the persecution and the relentless killing of the Jews by people and nations right through history. God did not help them at all even when Hitler and the Germans were attempting to wipe out the Jewish nation for good. I am pro Jewish. I really love this little nation and I believe God still has a plan for this nation but, until the nation of Israel accepts Jesus Christ as their Savior, they will have no rest and no peace exactly as God warned (see Scriptures about choosing life or death and the blessing or the curse in the Old Testament). When you see the long list of persecution and hatred and antisemitism through the ages you will understand my point here. The Jews had been ravaged by genocidal conflict since they rejected Christ Jesus. Read this post which will definitely depict what the Jews had been going through because of this (It is absolutely a MUST read if you really want to understand the role of Israel in the world today and during the end times): The Siege Of Jerusalem Prophesied.

Butterflies symbolizes people who are led by their emotions and feelings and moods. Pink butterflies speak of people who are led by sentimental feelings and yellow butterflies people led by jealousy, hatred and blasphemous feelings and attitudes against God or the Holy Spirit, just like the Pharisees in the time of Christ.

These people created a human shaped being without a gender (symbolized by the influences of the butterflies). This human shaped creature symbolizes a nation (men and women) and probably not a person. This creature became absolutely "black" (negative, depressed, a result of pure unbelief, being wicked, bad, sinful, hopeless). It became dry (dry means the total lack of the Spirit of God and the blessings of God) just as much as the dry canyon it dwelled. This is the curse of the law in action. This is actually the devastating reality and situation of the Jewish nation. The butterflies probably symbolize the Pharisees and the Sadducee's and their modern counterparts within the Jewish nation today.

The man right from you (right symbolizes positiveness and right and good) is probably Jesus Christ (although it seems that He (God) is not aware of anything else around him except for the black human shaped creature) which probably speaks of him being totally focused on this creature, the Jewish nation, when He walked this earth. He came to save this creature (the Jewish nation). Christ was totally focused on this nation whom He knew lost their way early in the Old Testament already. His mission was to save the Jews.

The solitary butterfly heading for him symbolizes the lack of interest in Christ and their refusal to accept him as their Savior. They rejected Christ which ultimately caused the destruction of the Jewish nation (See link above for further reading). This is symbolized by the butterflies disintegrating into fine black sand (sand in dreams speaks of the "flesh") and this creature disintegrating like the butterflies (the blind leading the blind to destruction).

The human shaped creature uttering "ashes" emphasized the total hopelessness of this creature. Ashes symbolizes destruction and pure hopelessness. Even the one butterfly which showed a little bit of interest, which probably speaks of a tiny minority of the Jewish religious leaders, did not make it. Before Christ could touch them (the few Jewish leaders symbolized by this butterfly) even they perished. Please take note that this scene is about those who rejected Christ. It is not about those who did accept him as their Saviour like John and Peter and so on. It is about the butterflies (wicked Jewish religious leaders) and the hopeless creature (Jewish nation).

You were swept away to the right which is good (right and good and positive). You symbolize those people (Jews but also gentiles) who embraced the gift and deliverance and salvation God offered them.

The second scene speaks of the time of the grace of Christ. This is the time (period) when all of us are able to hear the gospel and able to repent and follow Christ. The man in this scene still symbolizes Christ Jesus who is the Word of God. The Hebrew Bible on his lap indicates that this message is for the Jews. The voice that said, "Join him and hear the word" is probably Father God who also said "This is my Son in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him". All the symbols around this person sitting Indian style there under that myrtle tree symbolize God the Father, the Tree of restoration (Myrtle tree - The references in Isaiah (Isaiah 41:19 and 55:13) refer to the divine establishment of the people in the land in subjection to Jehovah. As an evergreen, fragrant shrub associated with watercourses, the myrtle tree is a fitting symbol of the recovery and establishment of God's promises. The trunk of the tree being intertwined in three speaks of a covenant, agreement or marriage), prosperity and peace and healing (restful place (peace), leaves (healing), spiritual food (blossoms), glory of God (perfume – the myrtle tree leaves, blossoms and berries are used to produce perfume), pleasant refreshing breeze (Spirit of God), green grass (prosperity), midday blue (kingdom of God), sun subtle on the skin (Father).

This vision is probably about the Jewish nation because of someone pondering on the spiritual condition of the Jewish nation or a Jewish person. This vision's message is that the Jewish nation is in a terrible spiritual condition but that there is hope for them. Their only hope is Christ Jesus. He saved them and in him is salvation, deliverance, prosperity and life. Listen to him!

I would be very surprised if this vision is about a specific person although it is possible. In that case that person is probably a Jew or a person who accepted the Jewish faith. If not, then this person is in a terrible spiritual condition similar to the Jews.

Feedback

It turned out that this vision was about a specific person. This is what the lady who had this vision informed me:

I see the meaning. The person was raised orthodox (Jewish). He accepted Yeshua (Jesus) but he walked away from the church. He shut everyone out including me out. I don't know how to pray for him. We were to be married and in a day after two years of dating, just retreated and refused to talk with anyone, including pastors and a messianic Rabbi we were close to. It has been heart wrenching. He was on fire for God and filled with the Holy Spirit. When he prayed for people by laying on of hands, they were instantly healed. Now he is depressed, isolated in a hopeless situation. In fact, the last words he spoke were "There is no hope for us." Now normally, I would accept a break up and move on. But this has been anything but normal. I have been woken up repeatedly to pray for him. He was even adamant that God told him to marry me. It was like all literal hell came upon us. It was so negative, I could see only as this being an onslaught. I am a minister. I have been told through my family history that we are Jewish. Although I have few clues of which tribe. Jesus is my King. And I see the devastation of the Jews. I have been around Jewish people all my life and many other cultures. Jesus was a Jew....

To me, when this lady pondered on the spiritual condition of her friend, God's answer with this vision was, "This is the spiritual condition of the Jewish nation. Your friend is part of this. But there is hope for the Jewish nation and there is also hope for her friend". The different symbols in the second scene suggest that.

Conclusion:

It is so easy to make a mistake when we interpret dreams. We need to connect our dreams and visions to the incident that triggered it in the first place. This will ensure a correct interpretation. However, do not forget that there are times when God speaks to us directly without us asking questions or pondering on matters that is bothering us or important to us. These dreams are not connected to an incident and are almost always spiritual and actually a lot easier to interpret.

I need to make it clear that all we can do is helping people understanding their dreams and visions. We can help them with the basics. We help them with most of the interpretation but even after we have done that they still need to seek God's face about the dream or the vision. They still need to deal with issues and they need to sort out their responsibilities, actions and reactions in terms of the relevant dream or vision.

Please read the posts in our newest category, "Interesting Discussions on dreams" which will help you a lot.

See you next week
